(They don't do so well with motion.)

Carnival's Thrill Theater features sudden and violent chair movement, strobe lights, sound effects at high volume and 3-D projection. Riders should be in good condition, free of neck and back pain, heart conditions, seizures or any other condition that could be aggravated by this experience. Pregnant women should use caution. Stationary seats are available for guests who would like to experience Thrill Theater without chair movement. We recommend that children under the age of 3 sit on their guardian's lap or in a stationary seat. An assisted listening system is available for guests with hearing impairments.
